The setting is 1990's contemporary Taipei, Taiwan. Mr. Chu, a widower who is a master Chinese chef, has three unmarried daughters, each of whom challenges any narrow definition of traditional Chinese culture. Each Sunday Mr. Chu makes a glorious banquet for his daughters, but the dinner table is also the family forum, or perhaps "torture chamber," to which each daughter brings "announcements" as they negotiate the transition from traditional "father knows best" style to a new tradition which encompasses old values in new forms. As the film progresses, each daughter encounters new men and with these new relationships their roles are broken and the living situation within the family changes. The father eventually brings the greatest surprise to the audience at the end of the story. Don't miss Chef Frei's delicious Asian menu with entertainment at your Club. 'Get Fit' Benefit!

At certain times of the year, especially during the legislative session, our work life overshadows our ability to manage stress. Even though we all know that exercise, sleep, and healthy eating habits are what is needed the most during stressful times, they are usually the first three things we let go.

CLUB members, Brian and Kim Bibeau, owners/founders of Sweat Therapy Fitness Studios in Tallahassee, have a special offer exclusively for CLUB members. For 30% off the normal rate, our members can pay only $129 per month to receive unlimited workouts at both locations. Sweat Therapy Fitness is not a gym. It is a fitness community offering small group and personal training sessions helping people of all shapes, sizes, and abilities discover their 'better'. Try a complimentary Sweat 101 session and let them map out a training plan tailored just for you. Email kim@sweattherapyfitness.com to schedule your appointment and take advantage of this special offer. Sweat Therapy Fitness is also an authorized Polar Heart Rate

Monitor retailer and CLUB members may receive 10% off any product, including the Polar Loop, using the promo code 'clubsweat'. Visit the website, sweattherapyfitness.com for more information. Our members work hard and now it's time to make sure you take care of yourself by adding a little 'sweat therapy' to your daily routine.
